March Madness

It's that time of year for some NCAA Men's Basketball! The tournament that was created in 1939 is just getting started and we're excited to watch! Before you "place your bets" make sure you do your research. ESPN has developed a star system to help you out.

- Five Stars - A team has it all and has a great chance of making it to the Final Four.
- Four Stars - A team isn't always consistent but has a reasonable shot.
- Three Stars - A team is talented but must play the best basketball of its season...and get lucky.
- Two Stars - You must be a gambler if you pick this team to get to Houston.
- One Star - If this team gets that far, "it's time to set the entire bracket on fire because this is more rare than a lightning strike!"

Check out espn.com and see how your favorite team rates! Good luck!

Larry's Corner

"I was only trying to help!"

One day a man saw a cocoon of a butterfly when a small opening appeared. He sat and watched the butterfly for several hours as it struggled to force its body through that little hole. After several hours, it suddenly stopped making any progress and looked like it was stuck, so the man decided to help the butterfly. He took a pair of scissors and snipped off the remaining bit of cocoon. The butterfly then emerged easily, although it had a swollen body and small, shriveled up wings. The man didn't think anything of it and sat there waiting for the wings to enlarge to support the butterfly, but that didn't happen. The butterfly spent the rest of its life unable to fly, crawling around with tiny wings and a swollen body. Despite the kind heart of the man, he didn't understand that the restricting cocoon and the struggle needed by the butterfly to get itself through the small opening was God's way of forcing fluid from the body of the butterfly into its wings to prepare itself for flying once it was out of the cocoon.

Two takes from this story:

- 1. when to help
- 2. Our struggles in life develop our strengths.

Old Irish Blessing.

*May the road rise up to meet you.
May the wind always be at your back.
May the sun shine warm upon your face,
and rains fall soft upon your fields.
And until we meet again,
May God hold you in the palm of His hand.*

Weird Animal Facts

- Lab rats enjoy mating more when they are wearing vests! They are a bit self-conscious about their stomach! (Aren't we all?!)
- When a horse looks like they are smiling, they are actually smelling the air.
- A horse is pregnant for 11 months.
