Here Comes Peter Cottontail

Spring has sprung and everything is in bloom! I get to leave my windows open and let the sunshine in (along with all of the pollen). Children are excited about Easter egg hunts, dyeing Easter eggs and a visit from the Easter Bunny. I used to LOVE to watch The Easter Bunny is Coming to Town and Here Comes Peter Cottontail when I was a little girl. I'm not going to lie; I still plan on watching them this year too! Do children even watch these anymore? If you've never watched them, I encourage you to watch them with your children or grandchildren! They'll take you back to much simpler times and you'll even discover which came first...the chicken or the egg. - Becky

Easter Egg Hunt for All Ages

Michelle Boyd version!

- Slips of paper that say: Stay Up 15 minutes Extra, Lunch Date w/Mom or Dad, Movie Night, You Get the Remote Night, Extra Screen Time, Pick Dinner, Skip Chores Day
- MONEY (even our 28-year-old Kenadee will hunt for these eggs!)
- Have a "GOLDEN TICKET" in one egg that gets a SUPER prize.
- Hunt in the dark.
- Pick up the eggs with tongs!
- HAVE FUN!

Weird Animal Facts

- Rabbits sleep with their eyes open! They have so many predators that they do this as a measure of protection.
- Baby chicks are born with an egg "tooth" which helps them to hatch. It will fall off soon after they hatch, and they never have any other teeth.
