Happy 250th Birthday America!

This month, we were all able to celebrate America's 250th birthday. We claimed our independence from Great Britain! Here are a few fun facts about this special event!

John Hancock was one of only two to sign on July 4, 1776. Most delegates actually signed the Declaration of Independence on August 2, 1776!

English has never been the official language of the United States!

Thomas Jefferson and John Adams both died on July 4, 1826, the 50th anniversary of independence. Five years later, James Monroe ALSO died on July 4th.

Approximately 150 MILLION hot dogs are eaten each 4th of July!

The Betsy Ross flag story is almost certainly made up. The first person to tell it publicly did so 94 years after it "supposedly" happened.

Before 1951, there was no legal limit on how many terms a president could serve.

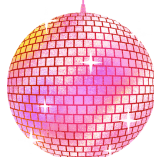

John Adams was convinced that July 2nd, not July 4th, would become the American holiday. He even wrote about it in a letter to his wife, Abigail.
