Get to Know Our TSS Moms - Take 2!

I enjoyed this so much last year that I decided to do it again with different questions!

Kenadee: What's the most trouble you got into as a child?

I got into trouble most often for slamming doors. My punishment was to open and close the door 150 times. Whatever door it was-the car door, my bedroom, door, the pantry door, etc.- this is NOT the worst thing I did as a youngster, but it is what I remember getting in trouble for the most."

Michelle: What's the most trouble you got into as a child? I was 7, and I loved raw corn. Our neighbors had a huge field of fresh corn. I would sneak a piece and hide in the bushes to eat it. One day, my mom caught me. She made me go to their door, apologize, and give it back. I was mortified.

Becky: What was your first job? I was a gift wrapper at Christmas for Parks Belk. Each customer would take a number. Whenever I saw that someone had a piece of luggage or cookware to be wrapped, I'd peek at their number to see if I needed to speed up or slow down on the gift I was working on. I NEVER wanted to do those items! Shirts and cosmetics were the easiest things to wrap! I still LOVE to wrap gifts!

THE FAMILY CIRCUS

Shelby: What's the most trouble you got into as a child? Around age 5 or 6, I made the executive decision to dump every bit of baby powder in the house all over my brothers and their bedroom. It looked like a blizzard had hit indoors. There is photographic evidence, unfortunately."

Guess Who?

We each answered more than one question. See if you can guess which pink chick these belong to!

1. Her first job was a party hostess at Funzone.
2. She was ALWAYS in trouble for being messy!
3. She wasn't allowed to have a rabbit. She secretly bought one, and it woke her mom up in the middle of the night when it knocked over the trash can. She was grounded for a month!
4. When she was 15, she worked at KFC.
5. Her uncle coached at a college where the mascot was a lion. The dancing lion terrified her! Every game ended the same way...she was in tears.
6. Her favorite song is "I Can Only Imagine."
7. She once got in trouble for climbing into the window display and pretending to be a mannequin!

Tracey: What's your favorite food? My favorite food is steak...filet mignon to be exact! If you want to make me happy, feed me some medium-rare filet!

Sydney: What was your biggest childhood fear? After I forged a permission slip to watch Jurassic World in class, I wouldn't sleep in my room for a month because I was scared dinosaurs would pop out and eat me. Unfortunately this was the 5th grade.

Haley: If you have a tattoo, what is it and why did you get it? My only tattoo is on my wrist and says "resilient," which I got to remind myself that I always bounce back from hard things.
